2016 Young Anglers Shelter Island Pier Tournament

By: Dave Hanes

The Morning started out with another Beautiful Day in Paradise, but the worry of a Gang of Adult Anglers occupying the majority of the Pier due to the massive amount of bait that was in the water attracting small Bonita and Mackerel was of concern. Thank goodness over the course of the morning the Adults thinned out and gave way to the Young Anglers. All in all, the Tournament turned out Great again this year and there were so many volunteers from San Diego Anglers, a Fly Fishing club, Rod and Reel, the Marlin Club, and more that it was unbelievable. We all wanted to relive our childhoods I guess. Great job all!

I would like to thank those that helped out from our club: Ray Broadfoot, Gail Matsushima, John Otto, Vince Harding, Gary Smith, Pablo Villavincencio, Kevin Burkhart, Don Pehle, Mike Mahlman, and Bill Mcleod. Please forgive me if I left anyone out. Thank you all very much for your efforts!

The Springer Knot By: Louis Almeida

With all these exceptionally large, 100lb. plus Bluefin Tuna being caught off our local waters, it made me think what kind of knot would I use to tie on my terminal tackle or live bait. These fish aren't your average 30lb Yellowtail, so I wanted to make sure I could tie the best knot possible for these big fish. So after asking some of the more knowledgeable anglers out there, I was directed to a video by well-known long-range fisherman John Collins. Well, I learned something new today: the Springer knot. Not to say other commonly known knots are bad, but here is an angler that spends the majority of the year on long range boats. He knows what works for catching big tuna. So he has three knots that he loves, depending on what you are trying to accomplish.

The RP or John Collins knot: With Spectra being the norm nowadays, we all struggle with which is the best way to join your Spectra to your mono or fluorocarbon leader or top shot. Why struggle with a Bimini Twist or Uni to Uni. Once you learn the RP knot, it's a piece of cake and can be tied very quickly.

The San Diego Jam knot: Okay, I won't get into this knot as everyone should have this in their arsenal of knots. One of the better knots for tying terminal tackle.

The Springer knot: Well, like I said earlier, you learn something new every day. Maybe more anglers know about this knot than I am led to believe, but none of the anglers I asked had a clue about this knot. This is one of the simplest knots I have seen in a while. It's so simple, I reviewed the video about five times thinking I had missed something. If you know how to tie the San Diego Jam knot, then this knot is for you.

The video to learn how to tie the Springer knot can be found on YouTube. I will also have a table set up at the next meeting showing how to tie the Springer knot. Now, go catch some big tuna and don't forget to submit your photos of your big fish. Email your photos to sdaboard@gmail.com.

2-day Trip on the "Success"

By: Dwayne Patenaude

The twelve of us met Sunday evening at Point Loma Sport fishing for our annual 2 day trip on the boat "Success". We have had the good fortune to be involved with this great little 12 pack boat since it was first built, scheduling some of its first charters.

As we were waiting, the "Success" pulled into the dock and unloaded some nice yellowfin and bluefin tuna into a dock cart which raised our hopes of a great trip. We boarded the boat, got our bait, had our seminar, and blasted out to the "43", due west of Point Loma about 40 miles. Carey told us that the big bluefin had been biting in the dark on glow-in-the-dark, 160 gram, Shimano flatfall lures. As usual, the early risers were Earl and Ed Asbury and they tied on the flatfalls to the 130 lb gear that Carey wanted us to use. Just before sunup, Ed Asbury tied into a great 140 lb BFT and decked it with no problems. Skunk is off the boat!!! As the morning progressed, the boat continued to turn on school after school of 50 to 70 pound yellowfin tuna, but they did not want to play, finally about mid-day the tuna started a slow pick, hooking a fish about every 15 -20 minutes. We stayed with the school, boated a few and had a few casualties as the fish were eating only 40 or 50 lb gear. That was our big bite for the day but we continued to SONAR large schools of tuna that did not want to bite all the way until sundown.

The next day, everyone was up early, anticipating another big BFT in the dark, but it did not happen. We again metered all day long, large schools of fish that did not want to play. We decided to put up the kite, the Yummie flier, and troll the bank looking for the cows that have been patrolling the bank (Just before we got on the boat, we had heard that Eddie and Dennis had caught a 272 lb BFT on the 43 that day!). It was almost the end of our trip when the kite rod went off after a massive explosion. It was Ed Asbury's turn on the kite rod and he hooked up(30 minute rotations with everyone). After about an hour, the team of Earl and Ed Asbury succeeded at bringing one of these massive Bluefin tuna to the boat. 3 gaffs were sunk and the crew grunted as they drug this cow over the rail. The boat shook as the cow landed on the deck. We were in awe of this huge fish and we taped it out around 250 lbs. When we weighed it at the dock, it weighed 258 pounds and drew a small crowd as this local cow was hoisted up on the scale.

Talking with Carey on the same group of fish that were bigger. He believes that this be here for the next few years, fishing. Hopefully he is correct ery, right in our own back way home, he said this was the here last year, only 40-50 pounds fish might be cycling back up and just like in the Zane Grey era of and this will become a regular fish-

Fishing on the “Vendetta”

By: Shelly Cochlin

Our July 31st, ¾-day fishing trip, on the “Vendetta” was a huge success! One of the best Fishing Charters I have ever had! Captain Summer wanted us at the dock at 4:00 pm. Everyone arrived on time, fishing gear was loaded and we were off! There were a total of 12 of Anglers, 10 guys and 2 ladies on board, plus Captain Ray Summer and his lead crewman, Nick.

Initially, the anglers wondered where everyone would place their tackle bags, as space seemed limited. There were at least 3 large coolers on board belonging to the staff, taking up prime real estate for tackle bags. A chat with Nick and the Captain resulted in my getting the nickname of Martha Stewart Queen Decorator, but they gladly rearranged some of the coolers to the top deck and the anglers had plenty of space. Now, it seemed the anglers were making note that the boat was a bit slow; however, the time went by quite quickly as the Captain and Nick were quite the entertainers and made us all laugh and have such a good time that we almost forgot we were there to fish. Well, not really, but we had more fun with the crew than on almost any other Charter most of us had ever taken. Of course, we also had a great group of Anglers on board with team spirit!

Captain Ray personally barbequed us some of the best chili sausage dogs ever! By lunchtime nearly everyone on board needed a break from the yellowtail bite, which was absolutely on fire! I even had to beg the deck hand to finish bringing in the 4th yellowtail I had caught in under one hour, as my arms were shaking so bad. Nick agreed, as long as I gaffed my own fish, so now I know how to gaff from a big boat! Woo Hoo!

Nearly everyone had limits of yellowtail or got at least 3-4 fish on board, ranging from 12-20 lbs., along with a few nice size barracuda and bonita. At the end of the day, we split everything so that everyone on board walked home with enough fillets for several meals. Everyone had great team spirit! Thank you, Ray Summer and crew, for one of our best fishing trips ever, the entertainment, and even all those coolers that were loaded with water, food, soda, and beer just for us! No one could ask for a better crew!

2016 San Diego Anglers Three B's Tournament

July 30th, 2016, By: Dave Hanes....

Well Hello Anglers,

OK, we had a pretty dang good tournament. It was a great day on the water for most of our participants, with nice weather conditions, and all the 3B's species (Bass, Bonita, & Barracuda) were around and willing to bite. Ray Broadfoot got some help from Eddie on filling out FMM's and made it to the Islands, 'Johnny O' (Otto) went out with a pretty dang seasoned skipper, Dwayne, and fished without having to cook, Louis and Gary lent a hand on the set up of the event, Thanks! :o) I didn't fall on my face because Johnny O got to fish, and we had plenty of Chicken and fixin's and didn't run out. Solo Angler Dad: Adam Larson took top honors for 1st place which earned him $160.00, the Jackpot worth $80.00, and was the only Angler to land all three species. Great Job Adam, with a total combined weight of 15.4lbs. for a grand total take of $240.00. Justin Larson had a Basket Ball game, which is why the Month long tournaments work out so well for everyone. 2nd place earning him $80.00, went to another one of our seasoned skippers in the Club, Eddie Howerton, with two of the three B's, and a total weight of 12.11lbs.; 3rd Place was worth $50.00 and went to another great Fisherman Dennis Burlason with a total weight of 12.4lbs.; 4th Place and $35.00 went to one of our harder fishing Ladies in the Club, Nancy Ortiz, with a total two B's weight of 10.6lbs.; 5th place went to Dwayne Patenaude for his 5.3lbs., two B's sack earning him a free entry into our next tournament. There were no Juniors entered in this Tournament, Dang it :o(

What a season for BIG Bluefin!!!

Ed Howerton, out fishing Sun., Aug. 21st with Dennis Burlason, and Stoked on Fishing's Shea McIntee, hung a 274Lb BFT. They used 130Lb Spectra with a top shot while Kite fishing using a Yummy Flyer. After a 45 minute war, Dennis was able to sink a gaff in the fish. With the help of all three of the guys they pulled the cow onto Dennis' boat the "Boss Whaler."

Only a couple days later, Dennis and Ed went out again using the same set-up, but with the roles reversed. This time, Dennis came up with a 145.3Lb BFT. After a 20 minute battle, he and Ed were able to get the fish onboard.
