The San Diego Anglers

Are Proud to Present

Our Annual Fishing & Tackle Swap Meet

Wednesday, November 2nd

Portuguese Hall

2818 Avenida de Portugal,

San Diego, CA 92106

Doors open at 5:30pm

It's time once again to clean out that closet or garage, dig through all of your fishing & boating gear, raffle prizes, or any other fishing related items you no longer need or want, & haul them to our November swap meet meeting to sell or trade. This is a great time to make a bit of cash to put toward those upcoming tournaments and fishing trips, or maybe buy a nice surprise for that special someone.

We will once again have the swap meet at Portuguese Hall to make room for all the sellers and buyers.

This is a big event, so come on down and browse the tables for that special lure nobody sells anymore, or a gently used reel to replace the one you wore out pulling on big fish.

The swap meet is free for buyers and open to the general public, so bring a friend or two.

Seller's Tables: One Free Table if you are San Diego Angler club member, and $20 per table for the general public.

Contact Louis Almeida, Jr. to reserve a table.

FISHING CLUB

BIG BROTHERS & SISTERS DAY ON THE BAY by Al Stasukevich

The 20th Annual Big Brothers and Sisters Day on the Bay, on November 16th, was another huge success.

We put 21 boats 3 guides with seaforth skiffs on the water Last count was 29 Big Brother/Sister Teams. If the shouts, squeals and smiles were any indication, they all had a great time. The morning saw sand and bay bass, halibut, mackerel and sculpin biting to keep everyone busy.

Some of the Big Brother/Sister Teams were repeats from previous years and most of the Skippers were doing it for the 20th time. A huge thanks to all the skippers who donated their time, boats, gear, gas and expertise for the event and the club members on hand to act as guides. As usual, Little John Otto provided photo support.

But this event can't function without the Ground Crew who makes sure everything goes off without a hitch. This year the Ground Crew Coordinators guided by the deft hands of Tina Burlason and Debbie Patenuade did an outstanding job (for their 20th time).

Last, but equally important are our corporate partners SubWay, The Branding Iron, Everingham Brothers Bait.

Thanks to All and particularly the co-founder of this event and host for the last 16 years, Andy Kurtz and the crew of Seaforth Boat Rentals.

In addition to our partners, it takes about 50 San Diego anglers to make this day happen.

Once again a great team put on a great event
Thanks again to everyone involved.

Review: Yeti vs. RTIC vs. Ozark Tumblers

So I finally decided it was time to get one of the Yeti tumblers everyone has been talking about since they claim to keep drinks cold up to 24 hours. So I go online and almost fall out of my chair to see that a Yeti 30oz. tumbler sells for $39.99. Is this thing made out of gold? Well I was not about to spend $40 on a drink cup, so I opted to see what other brands were available. I ended up finding a lot of reviews on other tumblers made by a new company RTIC (artic) $19.99 and Ozark Trail (Walmart band) $9.74 with claims that they performed as good or better than the Yeti brand. With all the false reviews these days on the internet, I set out to perform my own test of the three brands. So I purchased the 30oz. tumbler from each of manufacturer, Yeti and RTIC were purchased from Amazon, while I was able to purchase the Ozark Trail brand at the local Walmart store. Upon inspecting all three tumblers, they are basically identical except for some minor differences in dimension and weight. Quality on all three was exceptional and all three were constructed out of stainless steel with a polycarbonate lid.

Since my purpose in purchasing the tumbler was to keep my drink cold, I opted only to test how cold my drink would stay, even though all three brands also claim to keep your drinks hot for an extended period of time. So I filled each tumbler to the top with ice and room temperature water, and placed all three tumblers outside on my patio table. This is a good spot as it gets a good amount of direct sunlight in the late morning/afternoon, and shaded sunlight in the evening.

Well I have to say I was impressed with the performance of all three brands. Nearly 12 hours and the tumblers still had ice in them and the water was still cold. Plus, none one of the tumblers sweated and the surface of the tumblers were mildly warm to the touch. No worries about grabbing a hot cup.

So save your money and go with the Ozark Trails brand. No I am not a Walmart fan, but seeing that all three brands are made in China and probably in the same factory, the $30 savings over the Yeti brand can go towards some fishing tackle.

Until next time...Louis Almeida, Jr.
