San Diego Anglers May 16th Twilight Charter

Friday evening started out great with all our new members and our returning participants gathering and mingling with each other at Seaforth landing's outside patio/breezeway with great hopes of the smooth seas, and a wide open bite. As we boarded the New Seaforth we were greeted by the crew and Skipper Cody that wanted to know our interests for our target species. Cody said that they had a Yellowtail boated on their afternoon trip, and did we want to target the Tails on our excursion? These Twilight charters are more Family oriented so we asked to target the Bass, so it was off to the bait barge for some very small pin heads and then out around the corner off Ocean beach/Sunset cliffs for a shot at some nice calicos and whatever? Underway everyone got signed in and met Savannah our chef, as she was already taking orders for her delicious Burgers and sandwiches that she later mentioned that she had been overwhelmed by all the orders! Destiny Chavez and Faith Martinez were ripping up the Dance floor in the galley as all of our members finished up their sign in. First stop and drop revealed that it might be a slower evening bite as only a couple fish came aboard and a bunch of those were Mac attacks so Cody made a move to find a better Honey hole! Cody and crew finally got the bite to start and it was on, with a flurry of Mackerel to start the rods bending and our Anglers got pumped up and ready for what was to come.

Harrison was hooked up plenty with his newer Diawa rod and reel combo on those Macs.

New members Troy and Gavin were happy climbing aboard on the Twilight and joining the fish fest. With Gavin hooking a mix bag of Calicos, Rockcod, and of course Mackerel, nice job.

New member Shawn Clark had fun ripping the Macs in hopes of hooking one of those Grand Daddy Reds.

New members Gary and Jonathan Farmer had some Quality time with their plethora of a catch including Bottom dwellers, Bass, and the all elusive Mackerel.

David Chavez and kids Damian, and Destiny also had a nice mixed bag, and Destiny enjoyed her new found dance partner Faith, blowing up the dance floor.

New member Victor Soltero, I think, had the most unique catch, pulling up what looked to be the bottom of a commercial lobster trap, We thought we might give it Savannah for grilling those tasty burgers she was making? He also had a wide assortment of fin fish caught.

Regulars like Joe and Wyatt had a nice wide assortment of fin fish and bunches and bunches of the schooling Mackerel, nice job Wyatt!

New Family members; Marco Martinez, with kids Iasmin, Faith (Dancing with the stars), and Mark Anthony are no beginners to the fishing scene as they brought their own Ghost shrimp for the occasion and also managed a nice buffet mixed bag of fin fish.

New member Kent Wyatt and nephew Sean Tully were having a great time being on the water hooking up and they brought their Sturgeon gear just in case one of the prehistoric somehow got lost and made its way south of the Bay area, welcome aboard.

Eric, Madi, and Ashton Heidemann had a nice Family outing, but Madi wished there could have been a nicer grade of fish to our catch! She's going to be a great Big game fisherwoman. All in all it was still fun and they had a nice mixed bag. I was told that it doesn't matter to Ashton as long as he is fishing!!!

Our Social Director Glenn Gerber and his buddy Jeremy for some reason kept asking about the correct bait to use for Louisiana Catfish, I guess they had a hot tip for bait.

Our Own Mr. Tyler Robinson, (Sports boat deckhand on the Aztec and star of Hooked on Farming)) was busy helping others with their gear and catch, and he was also farming Mackerel! Tighter lines Bud.

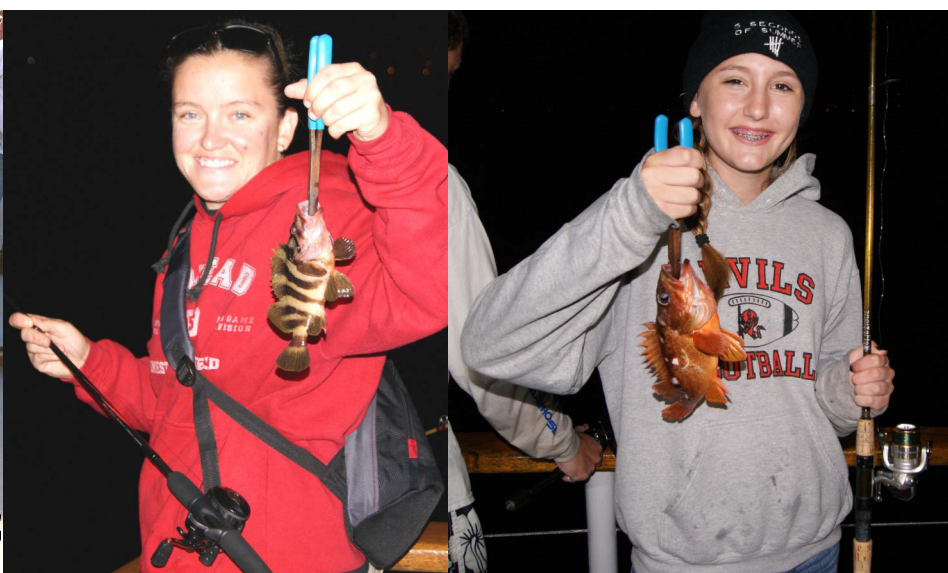

Guy, Judy, and Blue Burt like always really enjoyed themselves fishing, and Judy especially enjoyed seeing all the future young Fisherpersons catching Nemo! These will be our future fishermen and women. They also very much appreciated the crew, Outstanding help! Thanks

New members Adam and Justin Larson had a good time on their first Twilight and being new to the Club they had a nice variety of fish caught that night, Welcome!

Jennifer highly enjoyed her experience. She had started out using a bucktail and then quickly changed to a dropper loop and the Rockcod started pulling! Next time she plans on saving the groups of Mackerel she caught for future bait!!! Her highlight was catching her nice Vermillion Red Rockcod, Nice one Jennifer! And Welcome.

Harry Walker also managed a very nice bag of mixed Fin fish with the best of all being the nice 3 poundish Rubber lip Perch that he caught just as the boat started to pull away from our last stop of the evening winning the Jackpot. Nice job Harry!

We missed all the regulars normally on the trip, sorry you couldn't be there, and Welcome all our Newbie's. We are very glad for those who were caught up in the Fires that they did not suffer any losses in any way!! We are looking forward to all of those that could not make the First Twilight to be on the up and coming Twilights. Thank you All! <:(!!!!!!!!!!!!!!>(<
