The San Diego Anglers

Are Proud to Present

John Cassidy

Owner, Angler's Arsenal

January 12th, 2022

At Portuguese Hall

2818 Avenida De Portugal
San Diego, CA 92106

On the corner of Shelter Island Dr. & Shafter St.

John Cassidy's roots run deep in San Diego sportfishing. where his father introduced him to fishing in the mid-'50s. Later he crewed on several well-known San Diego based boats, including the Del Mar, Kingfisher and Paularto II. San Diego Fishermen Magazine hired Cassidy in 1979 as a feature writer, where he was soon writing a seafood-related cooking column, Hop-along John's Galley.

In 1981, John was elected president of the San Diego Council of Bass Clubs, and in 1983, he and his wife Vicki founded Angler's Arsenal, currently located in Lakeside, California. In 1993, they purchased Western Plastics, which soon expanded into the lure and fishing products distribution company it is today. In 1995, Vicki and Hop-along began running freshwater bass fishing tournaments and later expanded into the saltwater inshore arena, running fishing tournaments through the San Diego Saltwater Bass Showdown series.

Today, John can be heard regularly hosting the Sunday "Rod & Reel Radio" Show on 540 AM in San Diego and also available as a podcast online. www.rodandreelradio.com.
